

Richmond Accident Lawyer

Richmond Accident Lawyer - Our firm of Intellectual Property lawyers know how much importance and value you put on intellectual property. We provide a broad range of legal services so as to help you license and protect your intellectual property to trade secrets, trademarks, industrial designs and copyright. Our clients are those involved in the use, creation, licensing, acquisition and protection of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have many years of experience securing patent, trademark, copyright and industrial design registrations globally and nationally. We are skilled at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

We offer the following Patent services: filing, prosecution and preparation of patent applications; prior art searching; licensing and assignments; enforcement.

For Trademarks, we offer the following: opinions and searching relating to registration of design, word, certification or public official marks and distinguishing guises; preparation and filing of applications for registration; licensing, franchising and assignment agreements; opposition procedures before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; passing-off opinions and infringements; expungent (removal) applications and renewals; trademark defense and enforcement.

For Copyrights, we offer searching; licensing of literary (including software), musical and dramatic works; preparation, filing and prosecution of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and copyright protected works and sale of copyright; copyright defense and enforcement.

We assist preserve your organization's competitive advantage through the protection of Trade Secrets. We create programs and draft agreements for the protection of confidential information.

For Industrial Designs we offer searching and availability opinions; licensing and assignment; filing, prosecution and preparation of applications for registration.

We have many clients from a variety of trades like for example entertainment, agriculture, hotels, manufacturing, travel and technology.