

Personal Injury Law Firm Richmond

Personal Injury Law Firm Richmond - Our Technology Law team can offer you with innovative legal solutions, whether your company is on the verge of commercializing a new technology, already a successful enterprise or in the process of starting up. Our firm's value-based services will assist you develop and sell innovative products.

Our lawyers offer help on different legal matters which affect the technology companies now. This can include all phases within the development of your technology firm, particularly securing patent, trademark and copyright protection. We know the value of your intellectual property. We would carefully craft financing arrangements and joint venture agreements to ensure that you have the flexibility to manage your research well and continue to commercialization. We pay special attention to licensing agreements, production arrangements and strategic alliances to ensure that you acquire the maximum benefit possible from your intellectual property.

We give special consideration to business arrangements for technology services. Services comprise preparing licensing agreements, software implementation and development agreements, software support and maintenance agreements, service bureau and data centre agreements, distribution and marketing agreements and hardware maintenance and purchase agreements. We perform project rescues and reviews, and provide recommendation about the legal aspects of e-commerce initiatives. We likewise offer guidance through the implementation and negotiation of agreements for the procurement of technology software and services.