

Civil Litigation Lawyers Richmond

Civil Litigation Lawyers Richmond - Areas like for instance mergers and acquisitions, competitor agreements, abuse of dominant position, tied selling, refusal to deal, price maintenance, and several anti-competitive trade practices are all provided for within the Competition Act. In addition, practices consisting of bid rigging, conspiracies, and deceptive marketing practices are forbidden.

Our experience company has had extensive understanding concerning commercial clients and together with the Commissioner of the Competition Act. This even comprises the appearances before the Federal Court and the Competition Tribunal. We negotiate projected mergers and acquisitions along with the Competition Bureau on behalf of our clients and have even been a part of numerous lawsuits regarding anti-competitive practice allegations. Our company has the expertise and skill necessary to make sure our clients have up-to-date details about compliance issues.