

Richmond Law Firms

Richmond Law Firms - Our Administrative Law Group Our assists businesses, individuals, not-for-profit organizations, and governments with different issues connected to regulatory agencies and tribunals. Our members represent clients before tribunals and commissions on such issues like information and privacy, gaming and liquor, insurance, human rights and water quality safety.

Our lawyers have skill handling boards of inquiry and different administrative tribunals established for workplace safety and health and environmental law. We offer initial due diligence and structure compliance-based transaction strategies. We have numerous years of knowledge acting for clients before administrative law decision-makers. Our lawyers even bring to the table valuable adjudicative skill through serving as arbitrators and mediators.