

Legal Aid Lawyers Richmond

Legal Aid Lawyers Richmond - Our Financial Services Group assists clients in matters associated to finance, restructuring and insolvency. Our group members' training within the financial services trade equips them with the insights and skills to evaluate the needs of our financial services clients. We have a deep knowledge of the documents and structure relating to transactions, and we have numerous years of knowledge working in the various trades and regulatory environment in which our clients operate. We combine technical expertise together with the applicable business information in industry teams and practice groups to assist each client's particular needs.

Our team represents big finance organizations consisting of non-bank lenders, banks and other companies. We have skills working with participations and syndications, secured transactions and asset-based lending, and also have worked in areas of commercial finance, including mezzanine, subordinated debt, film and private equity financings within Canada and the United States. We are mostly recognized for our work with alternative and secured financing. We have developed superb relationships in the lending community, that enables us to be able to help corporate clients to secure financing from the most appropriate lender.

The various kinds of financing transactions we implement for our clients consists of multi-currency loans, project financings, cross-border and syndicated loans, letter of credit facilities, acquisition facilities, real estate financings, asset based lending and venture capital financings. Our experts will structure and document bulk lease financing facilities pursuant to which lenders finance portfolios of equipment leases. We even develop the off-balance sheet financing of energy retrofits of public and private buildings. Our services consist of structuring and documenting on- and off- balance sheet financings including conditional sale agreements, sales of receivables, non-rated asset securitizations, leveraged buyouts and equipment leases. We advise clients with respect to lenders' standard form documentation and lending procedures and policies.

Working closely with our Tax Group, we represent financial institutions in their domestic and offshore investment activities and provide recommendation about innovative risk management techniques involving financial derivatives.

Our Insolvency and Restructuring Group gives services in all fields of insolvency law to financial institutions, debtors, trade creditors, debtor-in-possession lenders, liquidators, trustees and receivers. We help with reorganizations, proposals, receiverships, restructurings, workouts, bankruptcies, enforcements and liquidations.

In order to help enhance recoveries and to minimize the effect of insolvency upon the interest of stakeholders, our litigators will develop comprehensive methods.

For our subordinated and senior investors, lenders and borrowers; we could help in the structuring and implementation of debt workout arrangements. We are an exceptional addition to whatever management group, since we provide innovative transactional advice, particularly about the purchase and sale of insolvent businesses and to out-of-court restructurings.