

Richmond Car Accident Lawyers

Richmond Car Accident Lawyers - Our class action defense team is among the nation's largest and really knowledgeable. Our experience is varied, but we specialize in class action situations consisting of employment, competition, environment problems, pension, product liability, professional liability, and securities.

Our firm is fully capable of defending our clients in trial or coming to a settlement early in the procedures by way of negotiation. We make use of a strategy that is cost effective and efficient. As our counsel includes lawyers from multiple jurisdictions, we can offer our clients knowledgeable, useful advice and a national method when defending multi-provincial class actions. With regards to dealing with cross-border litigation, we also utilize our "one team" approach. We have worked directly along with external and internal U.S. defense counsel to create a worldwide defense plan.

To ensure that our clients requirements are best represented, we make use of a multidisciplinary plan to enable us to draw upon the information given by groups in banking, competition, commercial and corporate, labor and employment, intellectual property, securities and pension.