

Richmond Bankruptcy

Richmond Bankruptcy - Over the past couple of decades, our company has offered suggestion on all aspects of bankruptcy law, consisting of creditor's remedies, reorganizations and restructuring as well as commercial litigation. Our profile is highly regarded internationally, and as such a large percentage of our clientele is internationally based. Much of our business regards cross-border restructuring and insolvencies between Canada and the United States. We are knowledgeable in a wide variety of matters because of our many domestic relationships with different lenders and professionals. Our practice consists of working together with financial and commercial organizations, domestic and international financial institutions, trustees, investors, receivers, creditors' committees, acquirers and debtors in insolvencies and reorganizations.

Members of our practice helped develop the system of Canadian cross-border insolvency. What's more, the local and federal government takes into consideration when amending the Canadian laws comprising worldwide trades. We are satisfied to be active members of various worldwide insolvency organizations.
