

Criminal Law Firms Richmond

Criminal Law Firms Richmond - It is very important to our clients that their intellectual property, and their rights behind it, remain protected and enforced at all times. Our company ensures that the misappropriation or misuse of intellectual property which is owned by our clients is handled efficiently and quickly. We offer counsel in situations dealing with the leak of confidential information, trade secrets, registered designs, copyright, patents, and trademarks. As well, we even handle the personality rights, anti-piracy problems, commercial disputes and defamation utilizing litigation.

In problems regarding patents, our lawyers are especially well-versed within the telecommunication, mechanical and pharmaceutical sectors. Any copyright violations arising from the web, such as disputes concerning music, software, artwork, and television rights, are handled fast to prevent more exploitation. Trademark and competition matters are generally handled utilizing litigation.

making use of our skills of our well-seasoned litigation lawyers along with our company's expertise concerning intellectual property makes for a formidable combination. Our clients can rely on us to act for them at all levels of the Canadian courts as well as global tribunals.

With our various educated litigators; we have also numerous patent and trademark agents, who work along with property litigators. We likewise have some knowledge within technology transactions. This ensures we have an additional set of skills that is advantageous should a case get settled previous to going to trial. The help that we give our clients is creative, time-efficient, and most importantly, effective.

To meet and achieve all of our client's objectives and goals, litigation are usually not the only means utilized. We often choose other and cost effective and efficient ways in order to meet the needs of the client. The main objective is to reach our clients' objectives as quickly and painlessly as possible.