

Richmond Personal Injury

Richmond Personal Injury - A personal injury can be an overwhelming and confusing experience. Your life could be turned upside down, physically, emotionally and financially. You need trusted and experienced advisors you can depend on. Our senior law clerk and personal injury lawyer have the specialized legal experience to provide you with expert recommendation and representation. We can help you to understand the legislation as it applies to your own situation, and we will take the time to talk about all of your choices. We will be here from beginning to end of the personal injury legal procedure.

We offer for free, your initial consultation with a skilled personal injury lawyer. You may have to pay an initial retainer fee, if we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis. If we can not acquire compensation for you, you would pay nothing in legal fees. We will be given a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in acquiring compensation. We would ensure that you understand all the facts of the retainer agreement before you sign.

In order to avoid your rights from expiring, you have to make contact with us as soon as possible after your injury. The particular time periods within which you need to bring your claim can vary from a few days to two years.

Our extensive skill extends into the following areas of personal injury: dog bites and animal attacks, motor vehicle accidents; pension plan appeals, slip and fall injuries and long-term disability claims.

The majority of personal injury cases are effectively settled without going to trial. Our aim is to offer effective negotiation and avoid expensive court procedures. Nevertheless, we have skilled litigators who would represent you before the court if it becomes needed.
