

Richmond Business Law Firm

Richmond Business Law Firm - Our firm's Business Law team understands our clients' business objectives and helps in attaining those objectives with efficient, customized and timely legal counsel. Our clients comprise private and public companies, partnerships and their executives and boards of directors. We act as business advisors, making use of our lawyers' multidisciplinary strengths in the full range of business law areas, such as mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, tax planning and environmental compliance. We have expertise in industries ranging from entertainment and sports to communications and information technology.

Our Business Law Group assists clients with a variety of commercial agreements including the preparation of confidentiality agreements, license agreements, employment agreements, customer service agreements, supply contract agreements, project agreements, management agreements, consulting agreements and non-competition agreements.

We help with the purchase or sale of shares or assets of businesses. This comprises related due diligence, the coordination of auctions, regulatory approval under the Competition Act, required financing and other statutes. Our group has facilitated business combinations planned so as to implement difficult company reorganizations in a tax efficient way, like "butterfly" transactions, plans of arrangement and amalgamations.
