

Legal Aid in Richmond

Legal Aid in Richmond - Our Wills & Estate Planning Group offers a broad array of advice and services regarding tax, estate, and retirement planning for corporate and personal requirements. Our goal is to provide the best tax, estate and retirement planning for our clients. We take an individualized approach to estate planning. Our services are designed to help you meet your requirements and attain your wishes for the future.

What Is Estate Planning?

Estate planning is the method of planning your assets and the various forms of asset ownership for your family, other individuals, and sometimes charitable groups. Estate planning is an important step in managing your future in case you ever become unable to care for your requirements.

Wills

As an important component in estate planning, we prepare will of numerous different levels of difficulty.

Estate Administration

We offer services regarding wills variation and estate litigation issues and assist with probate of will and administration of estates.

Family Trusts

We look after the implementation and management of family trusts as a part of tax and wealth preservation planning.

Representation Agreements

We can assist with legal and financial matters, health matters, personal care problems, in addition to the preparation of representation agreements.

Committeeships/Adult Guardianship

We prepare your nomination of committee for your future health care requirements and your application of appointment as committee.

Power Of Attorney

We provide preparation of enduring and specific powers of attorney.

Charitable Giving

When advising our clients regarding charitable giving, we can help you know the tax advantages and the structure of donations to charities.

Corporate Reorganization

We can also assist in the implementation of the reorganize of corporations in regards to how they may impact estate planning.