

Richmond Family Lawyer

Richmond Family Lawyer - When your marriage or common-law relationship dissolves, a lot of problems may take place. It is imperative that you retain sound legal counsel and that you fully know the effects that your potential decisions can have on your future. Our office provides expert suggestion and counsel on such matters as custody, access, pension and property division, debts and business property division. Our company is dedicated to providing you with the essential legal services you require to navigate through the family law process quickly and efficiently.

With whom will your kids live? When would the kids see the non-custodial parent? Who is accountable for financial support? Who would keep the matrimonial home? Who will be in charge of paying whichever debts incurred through the marriage? Furthermore, if you have a family business, how would the business assets be divided?

Our firm will help you in the preparation of a Separation Agreement which would offer clear and comprehensive answers to such questions. A formal written agreement is recommended so that you can be free to focus on your new life. This Separation Agreement, as soon as finalized, is a binding agreement on both parties.

This particular kind of agreement can even get incorporated into the final Divorce Order. When you and your spouse agree to divorce and have agreement regarding all major issues this is referred to as an uncontested divorce. An uncontested divorce could proceed fast through a three-part application procedure. Our responsibility is to be able to help you in the preparation of all needed papers and to file them quickly so that you can continue with your life.

When you and your spouse cannot agree on matters, we call this a contested divorce. Such problems can be addressed through settlement conferences, court proceedings, informal negotiations between parties and/or trials. Our lawyers can help you throughout all phases of the court procedure. Our objective is to protect your rights and advocate for the best interests of you and your loved ones.

If a common-law relationship needs a different procedure regarding support, custody, property division and pension division matters. We can likewise assist you with the termination of a common-law relationship related matters.
