

Richmond Labour Lawyer

Richmond Labour Lawyer - Did your employer dismiss you? Was reasonable notice given? Did your boss treat you justly or were you wrongfully dismissed? Is the severance package they offered fair or do you deserve more? If you do not sign off on it, what happens?

Various hard challenges and questions arise, when your position at a business has been terminated. The thought of being jobless for whatever length of time can be stressful and could be somewhat intimidating. It is important that you understand all your rights in order to make certain that you are being given just compensation from your previous boss. The lawyers working for our company are skilled negotiators who would truly fight for what you are legally entitled to. If required, they will commence legal procedures.

For the numerous cases including employment contracts, fiduciary duties, constructive dismissal, non disclosure agreements, non competition and confidentiality agreements, and wrongful dismissal and severance; there is advise and representation accessible. Our layers are skilled at determining the fairness of a severance package and will make sure that you be given what you are entitled to. Additionally, our company also provides advice to supervisors on post and pre employment situations.
