

Estate Lawyers Richmond

Estate Lawyers Richmond - Estate litigation usually takes place immediately after somebody you love becomes incapacitated or passes away. There are lots of emotions, and both interpersonal and family disagreements which likewise take place making the responsibility of making vital decisions practically intolerable. Our firm has various types of services that can ensure that all of the estate matters are handled quickly and effectively.

We offer help to executors, personal representatives, and beneficiaries concerning challenges to wills, trusts and powers of attorney. This consists of guardianship and trusteeship disagreements, will interpretation and undue influence, dependent adult claims, and capacity. In addition, trusts, charitable institutions and trustees can depend on our firm for useful advice.

One of the really stressful and difficult situations takes place when estates or a dependent adult are included. We ensure that our clients receive straight-forward and effective suggestion laced with sensitivity and understanding. Our resolutions are attained through arbitration, litigation, or mediation.