

Richmond Lawyer

Richmond Lawyer - Our tax law group's services span the full range of taxation areas: provincial sales tax and goods and services tax, personal and corporate income tax, and international tax. Our clients consist of individuals, corporates, estates, trusts, and not-for-profit organizations like for instance charities. Our tax lawyers draw on other areas of our company for quality suggestion in different tax law transactions.

Our company can offer assistance for individual clients, like for instance help in reducing taxes through their lifetimes; assistance in maximizing their estates; assistance with utilizing deferral opportunities and prudent savings tax. Lessening the tax burdens of beneficiaries is essential to clients and we provide help and suggestion in relation to trusts and estates.

We are able to assist our numerous business clients with public financings, mergers and acquisitions and corporate financings, both domestically and internationally. In tax planning, we advise our clients about the use of financial intermediaries and specialized entities. We help foreign and domestic lenders and borrowers to structure their transactions in the most tax effective way.

We have significant skill in commodity tax law. We focus on assisting individuals and organizations on many concerns of tax related to goods and services tax and retail sales. We work closely along with clients involved in worldwide and domestic trade in identifying tax-saving opportunities. We also help with compliance matters.

Our tax group has assisted a lot of clients through all phases of the tax review procedure, from the initial audit stage to the resolution of disputes in the most timely and cost-effective way.

The lawyers of our tax law group are devoted to regular analysis of the constantly changing developments in the tax law field. Our up-to-date skill allows us to advise concerning matters arising from government policies, judicial interpretation and amendments to tax legislation.

For prospective non-profit and charitable organizations wishing to incorporate, we can provide all the related advise about governance matters, insurance issues, risk management, fiduciary responsibilities and strategic planning.

Our litigators in tax law have several years of experience handling issues of tax disputes consisting of income tax, retail sales tax, goods and services tax, as well as different other disputes under taxation statutes.